

Question of Nativity

The Miami Metropolis, referring to the fact that only two of the candidates for the senate, Broward and L'Engle, are natives of Florida, seems to think that nativity, in such an issue, should be a factor in the contest. Blount is Georgia born, Reeves is an Alabamian and Talliaferro a native of Virginia. The contention of the Metropolis will hardly find much favor with thousands of voters who are not natives of Florida, but do not on that account hold themselves as less deserving in any respect than the native born citizen. Clay would have been lost to Kentucky, Webster to Massachusetts, Thomas H. Benton to Missouri, Jefferson Davis and L. Q. C. Lamar to Mississippi and John T. Morgan to Alabama, as bright, particular stars in the senate from those states if the question of nativity had been seriously taken by their constituents.—Live Oak Democrat.

Mrs. Samuel A. Rawls and little girls came down Tuesday afternoon, and they are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Maloney, at the Ocala House. They will probably remain in Ocala most of the winter.

Don't miss the bazaar to be given by the ladies of Grace Episcopal church on December 2nd. Refreshments will be served from 3 to 8 p. m. There will be a splendid display of fancy articles, suitable for Christmas gifts, and many pretty things for the babies. The Christmas tree will be there, loaded with pretty things, and old Santa Claus will act as salesman. 11-27-tf.

Messrs. Edwin Green and Leroy Galoway, who came down to Ocala last week for a short visit at home, left Wednesday to resume their college duties, the former to the University of Florida at Gainesville and the latter to Stetson University at DeLand. Mr. Green remained home several days longer than he intended on account of sickness.

Mrs. F. E. Haskell of Weirsdale was in Ocala Wednesday between trains. She came this far with her nephew, Mr. Arthur Allen, and her niece, Miss Arnold. Mr. Allen was on his way to Atlanta after spending several weeks at the lake, and Miss Arnold was on her way to Newnan, Ga., where she will remain until after Christmas with relatives. She will return to Weirsdale in January.

This paper has devoted a great deal of its space to the fair, because it thought it a most creditable and successful exhibition of the possibilities of our rapidly developing county. The premium list, which is now completed, is the longest ever given by any single county fair in the state. And the Marion county premiums are always paid promptly.

The Ocala Lumber and Supply Co., is making additions to its present warehouse capacity at its yards north of the city, to enable it to take care of its increased stock of building material, and to make room for further shipments, which it have on the road. This company is developing into a mammoth concern. It has at least a half million feet of lumber in its yards, and other building supplies in proportion.

The Rev. W. H. Dodge of Ocala, accompanied by his charming and attractive daughter, Mrs. Mary Dodge Maddox, are in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dodge, 216 Newnan street. Dr. Dodge and Mrs. Maddox have a host of friends here who are always glad to see them.—Jacksonville Metropolis. Mrs. Maddox is on her way home from Camden, S. ### MISS LOU ELVIE WILLIAMS WEDS

Miss Lou Elvie Williams and Mr. Allen Boring were quietly married on Thanksgiving day at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. W. Vinson. Mr. and Mrs. Boring left for a trip to Baltimore, Washington and other places, after which they will live at Lakeland, where the groom is in business.

The bride formerly resided in Ocala and attended the Ocala High School. Since moving away she has visited Miss Mary Gates and a number of other Ocala friends on various occasions. She has many friends here who will be surprised to learn of her marriage, and will wish for her a very happy married life.

Words and Music of a Frank Daniels Song Hit

The "Belles of Brittany" at Daly's theater is the big musical hit of the Christmas season. Frank Daniels is in the leading role, and the very best song in the big show is "The Ingle Nook," a love ballad. The words and music of this catchy melody will be given free with next Sunday's New York World, by arrangement with Francis Day & Hunter, publishers of the score.

CREDIT—High Prices

Our aim in this advertisement is to prove to you, that YOU can save money by making your purchases for CASH. We want you to prove our assertion to your own satisfaction and we are going to show you the way to test it: The next time you go to your credit dealer's store, ask for an item that you have bought previously on credit, say something that you paid $5.00 for, (by the way, something that you think the credit store has forgotten about) and offer him $4.00 in cash for same. But DON'T tell him of purchasing the same goods previously until he has accepted your offer. In nine cases out of ten you will be successful in getting the goods at your price, but in all cases you will get it for less than you did when you had it charged.
